Attacking weeds with moths!

Biological control of gorse, a weed of national significance, is the catalyst for the release of the Gorse Soft Shoot Moth last Friday at Currawang.

Goulburn Mulwaree Council undertook the release in conjunction with the Department of Primary Industry and the Wingecarribee and Queanbeyan-Palerang Councils.

Gorse (Ulex europaeus) is a plant that significantly reduces pasture and animal productivity and in forestry plantations, reduces tree establishment and growth. The annual cost of gorse management to agricultural and forest industries in Australia have been estimated at $7 million.

Scott Martin, Council's Business Manager of Building & Environment, undertook the release with Noxious Weeds Officers last week. "Biological control can be very effective for gorse, which is a harsh weed that is tough to control. Council will be checking the site where the release took place throughout the coming year, and I expect we will see some really good results."

Gorse soft shoot moths are approximately 1cm long with a 2cm wingspan. The early instar larvae will cause some damage to gorse; however the later instar larvae have the greatest impact. Larval feeding can sometimes kill the shoot entirely, however if this fails the destruction of spines from feeding destroys the plant's reproductive buds thereby reducing or preventing flowering and seed set the following spring.

Biological control is a long-term process that is not expected to eradicate gorse. It is hoped that once all biological control agents become widespread their combined impact will eventually result in a reduction in gorse vigour, seed output and rate of spread. This will in turn make it more susceptible to grazing, weather stresses and herbicides as part of an integrated management program.

Nerriga Gardeners

Nerriga Garden Club

We met at Helen's and had the usual superb morning tea and coffee before heading out to pick blackberries. We picked with secateurs as the bushes will be sprayed soon and any reduction in the seed load is good. The idea then was for the good people to sit and carefully pick off the fruit to make in preserves whereas the lazy ones like me just trimmed off the worst of the twigs and leaves and stuffed the rest in a pot and boiled it up before setting it to drain through muslin for jelly. I have not detected any difference in the product even when I do take care and it saves getting prickled all the time. My new stupid dog had a good time supervising and finding the last of the water in the small dams so everyone was happy.. We then returned to the house and indulged in a magnificent lunch before wending our ways home. We are all hoping for rain and the last bit while welcome was barely enough to wet the ground but it was good not to get the damaging hail and luckily a bit more fell at Carwoola.

The nights should be cooling down now, and the deciduous tree and shrubs should be changing colour. I hope we get some more rain.

My pumpkins are running with small ones on, but the parrots are eating the green pumpkin. We had to net the vegetables to stop the bird damage.

VEGETABLES

Plant seedling of cauliflower, cabbage, Brussel sprouts or broccoli, give them a dressing of liquid fertilizer to get them established.

Also plant lettuce, turnips, radish and white onions.

FLOWERS

Plant seedling of alyssum, pansy, viola, stocks, poppies, calendula, carnation, dianthus, polyanthus, larkspur, snapdragon, static, verbena and Virginian stock.

Plant seed of sweet peas, cornflowers, nemesia, primula, cineraria.

Other seedlings to plant are wallflower, sweet William( tall and dwarf).

Perennial plants such as hollyhock Canterbury bells, aquilegia(columbines), delphiniums and pentstemons can be purchased this month. Before planting give the garden a good dressing of compost and a light dressing of lime (if your garden is acid). You can lift and divide old perennial plants and trim them back and replant them.

Watch for aphids and various caterpillars can appear on roses.

Black aphids on chrysanthemums they can be spray with Malathion. Roses can be spray with complete rose spray. If there are only a few you can quash them or hose them off.

You can fertilizer your lawns this month, it will need a good soaking after or wait until the rain comes.

Propogating cutting of geraniums, fuschia and hydrangeas. A pot 10cm across will take anything up to a dozen cuttings, making sure they are planted around the edge of a terra cotta pot as they will get more warmth. Using a mixture of 1 part coarse sand to 2 parts of peatmoss, have at least 2 eyes in the mixture and 2-3 eyes (buds) out, making sure the mixture never dries out. I cover with clear plastic bag witch help keeps the soil moist

SOUTHERN TABLELANDS BRANCH

TO FEED OR NOT TO FEED

By Kay Muddiman – Media Officer

Understandable then that many who wish to encourage birds into their gardens do so by feeding them, however this inadvertently causes the birds harm. Whilst understanding that it is done with the best of intentions, WIRES does not recommend the feeding of any native birds for the following reasons:

- Artificial feeding is not necessary. Native birds do not need extra food as they are well adapted to their environment and will be much healthier and happier overall if left to eat only their normal diet.
- Most birds eat a balanced diet; 90% eat insects and nectar, seed or fruit. People feeding birds the wrong food changes the balance of their diet and can negatively impact their health.
- Feeding birds can increase aggression and stress as many try to feed together - this wouldn't happen naturally.
- Artificial feeding can change the balance of species in the wild as it can increase some species, which in turn, decreases others. The Rainbow lorikeet for example has taken great advantage of the artificial feeding and has all but eliminated the shy Scaly Breasted lorikeet from our urban areas.
- Bird seed left out in damp conditions rots, grows mould and introduces disease to the birds, and can attract rats and mice.
- Feeding encourages birds to become dependent on humans for their survival. They can lose the ability to find food for themselves, this is particularly so if they are juveniles who should be learning to find their natural food
- It can cause sickness and deformities in young as high quantities of salt are present in bread and processed foods.
- Feeding can make them overweight and high quantities of fat are present in processed food and meat. Raw meat is lacking in calcium and has high levels of phosphorous which contribute to dietary imbalance and severe deficiencies.
- Feeding can spread disease through a concentration of food and birds in large numbers in one place. This is particularly so with Psittacine Beak and Feather Disease (PBFD), which is an infectious disease affecting many of the parrot family, such as Sulphur-crested Cockatoos, Corellas, Galahs, Gang-gang Cockatoos, King Parrots and Rosellas and is fatal.

A galah on our lawn - feeding the way nature intended

The best way to encourage birds to your garden is by providing plenty of native shrubs and other vegetation where they can not only find their own food, but also shelter, nest and hide from predators. A birdbath will also encourage birds to visit you, and will provide an essential and reliable source of water for them. Birdbaths should be scrubbed clean and refilled daily to avoid the spread of disease such as the PBFD mentioned above, and also should be topped up through the day in times of excessive heat.

Our birds, along with all native animals have had to adapt to our cities, towns, roads and farms. Unfortunately, some are injured or orphaned when they come into contact with our way of life. The increasing pressures of land clearance, domestic and feral animals, pesticides and motor vehicles all take their toll. Within the Southern Tablelands Branch we do as much as we can to care for the injured and/or orphaned creatures of our area that need help, but we are always in need of more volunteers.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO HELP?

If so, why not consider becoming a WIRES volunteer?

The basic skills required are obtained by undertaking a WIRES Rescue & Immediate Care Course. Training is undertaken online, at your own pace – with one face-to-face workshop. The next Rescue & Immediate Care Workshop will be held in Goulburn on Sunday 26th March, 2017 from 9am to 1pm. If you are interested and would like more information, please ring our branch member Kristen on 0458 720 470 and have a chat about what is involved in WIRES membership, the Rescue & Immediate Care Course, and the above workshop.

Should you need advice or help for injured or distressed wildlife please ring our Branch Rescue Number – 4822 3888. Our volunteers will be only too happy to assist.

Until next time, take care all.

It just goes to show how resilient the Windellama Community and surrounding communities are by supporting the Windellama Country Fair during extremely high temperatures leading up to and on the day of the fair on Saturday 11th February.

The awning on the Eastern side of the hall was put to good use by the Windellama School Pupils, Teachers, and Helpers on benching day, when sheltering from the extreme heat above 40 degrees Celsius. As soon as the doors were opened for access to the inside of the hall, they were in and setting up their flower arrangements in jars. I was surprised that the water went into the jars and not over themselves to cool down. What a fantastic job the pupils did with the bits and pieces of foliage and flowers provided in making their arrangements. However, their creative ability they utilised in creating the different objects with the fruit and vegetables were extra good. I suppose some credit must go to the teachers and helpers for keeping the children focussed on what they were doing. The picture colouring in items was really good too.

The number of fresh flowers benched in vases and different flower arrangements was amazing and all I can say is “bet their water storage systems are low”. It just goes to show how creative exhibitors are with their displays in the wine and roses, decorative tea pots, and glass reflections. Anyhow, these exhibits were really appreciated by our club and the community.

The potted plants like Ferns, Succulents, Foliage, Bonsai and Flowering plants were also presented well.

Although the produce section lacked numbers, what was benched was good. An initiative by one exhibitor in benching a box of produce that they had grown was well received. In fact this idea was so good we will have an added class to cater for this type of entry at the next country fair.

The cooking section including the children exhibits was good, although I feel the hot temperature probably added more cooking time to the exhibits.

There was a reasonable selection of Jams and Pickles although, numbers were down.

What craft exhibits on display were excellent, with the champion exhibit once again of high standard. The high temperatures and sweaty hands leading up to the fair was probably the cause for low numbers in this section.

The photography section entries were up in numbers with some excellent shots of country life.

The overall Exhibition Winner across all sections for this year was Di Andrews.

Like I predicted the Magic Jester was well received by the Children and some Adults.

The local bush fire brigade turned up with their truck. This truck then became a major attraction especially when demonstrating the operation of the water hose where the littlies and some oldies were under the spray cooling down.

Windellama Public School Parents and Citizens ran the canteen and kept the patronage fed. The ice blocks donated by Johnno went down well.

Our local SES branch was on hand to help out in case of an emergency and also assisted with any odd jobs needing to be done.

The raffle prizes supplied by our sponsors were great e.g. Garden products and herbs from

Windellama SES First Aid & CFR

We are currently learning how to record all our activities on the electronic side of things, sounds a great idea, but as you know signal strength is not real great out this way. Technology is great for the young ones, not so great for us oldies.

The SES side of our activities has been nil, but the CFR has been quite the opposite. Fortunately there have been no requests for heat related illness.

Two of our members are able to go to an Ambulance related activity at Jindabyne, this will prove to of great benefit to their future with the CFR.

We are fortunate to have an organization that is prepared to put their resources and knowledge forward, so as to enhance the capabilities of the volunteers under their umbrella. One day is spent on discussion relating to previous events, the second day is hands on with simulated incidents.

I would like to go to a different sphere of things, in as much, we as SES members were in a position to help in whatever way we could, the Windellama Garden Club in the setting up of their Country Fair display. This Fair is a very important display of the different type of creativity of whatever field you may wish to have entered for the judges to cast their expert eye over. The Windellama School children were to be congratulated with their different types of displays entered. The School P&C certainly excelled them selves in the Catering dept; best hamberger I have tasted in a long time.

Entertainment was of a high standard, well done to those who organized that side of things.

The day was not very kind to us, but we survived, the RFS was much in demand when they applied a liberal "spray" of water, good thinking folks.

Nobody, other than those actually involved in the setting up that display and the dismantling of same, can imagine the effort that goes in to this.

Well done to all.

BUSH FIRE DANGER PERIOD COMMENCES ON 1ST NOVEMBER 2016

SOUTHERN TABLELANDS ZONE

NSW Rural Fire Service SOUTHERN TABLELANDS ZONE has declared the start to the statutory Bush Fire Danger Period (BFD) as at 1st NOVEMBER 2016.

From November 1, any person wishing to light a fire in GOULBURN MULWAREE, UPPER LACHLAN and YASS VALLEY Local Government areas will require a permit.

During a Total Fire Ban however, no fires may be lit in the open even if you hold a permit.

PERMITS REQUIRED From November 1

Fines can apply if conditions are not carried out.

THINK BEFORE WORKING OUTSIDE DURING THE FIRE SEASON

Always have water available for quick use

Electric fences can cause fires. When the fire danger rating is very high or above it is recommended that electric fences be turned off. This action will reduce fires accidentally ignited by these fences. Maintenance can be undertaken to remove vegetation by spraying or brush cutting under the fence lines.

COMING EVENT - BRIGADE AUCTION 8th APRIL 2017

Brigade Auction to be held on the 8th April at the Windellama Hall & Grounds. So now is the time to get together all those unused goods as they could be exactly what someone else is looking for. If you can spare some time to help either with catering, in the office or on the grounds please contact 4844 5359 as much of the setting up and work is done on the day before as well as on the day. Become involved in your community and be assured your assistance and efforts are greatly appreciated.

Notice: An interim charge of $20 will be required for auction items such as fridges, air-conditioners and tyres when selling these goods. The $20 charge will be refunded from the office when these goods have been removed from the grounds. We thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Over the Last Month

The Snr Deputy Jim Meehan advised that over the last month on days of extreme weather condition brigade members have been on standby at the fireshed.

Up until the 1890s the Bronte/Glenoval area was known as Mullengullenga or Mullengullengong. Over those years there were several hotels in the area, The Little Couple (1838), Case is Altered (1839-40), Half Way House (1849-1857), Povey's Pub and Dalton's. These were most likely the one hotel with a succession of names.

BUSHRANGING (Goulburn Herald 2 June 1849 p5)

On Thursday night last, four armed men having their faces partly disguised with white crape, visited the Inn kept by Mr J Taylor, of Mullengullengong. Having bailed up the inmates, six in number, the ruffians proceeded to strip Mrs Taylor in the hope of finding some money upon her. They were not disappointed, as there were seven pounds in her pocket, besides some silver. This they took, and after a vain search for more they decamped. Great expectations are entertained that the thieves will be brought to justice, as the police have succeeded in tracking them a considerable distance, and are still hot in pursuit.

MULLENGULLENGA (Goulburn Herald and Chronicle 25 September 1869 p 3)

This comparatively unknown locality is situated midway between Tarago and Windellama, and is occupied by a group of free-selectors, whose children, until recently, have been growing up utterly destitute of any means of education. Through the exertions of the Rev. R Earl, a provisional school has been established, which is carried on in an unoccupied hut kindly lent for the purpose by Mr A Boreham.

The school is placed under the charge of Mr Matthew Montgomery; and we congratulate the settlers in having obtained the services of so worthy a teacher. Efforts are being made for the erection of a stone building to answer the double purpose of a schoolroom and church; and on Wednesday, the 22nd inst., a bazaar and bazaar auction were held in a pad-dock adjoining the present school-room for the purpose of raising funds.

The weather proved remarkably fine; and at nine a.m. visitors began to arrive from Windellama, Bronti, Tarago, Inverloch, Springfield, Collector, and other places, and by eleven a.m. nearly two hundred, people were assembled. The business part of the proceedings then commenced; and at two p.m. the company sat down to a substantial repast, tables being provided by Mesdames Borham, Goodchild, Carey, Gore, Strang, Miller, and Wood. The company were by this time quite ready for knives and forks, and vigorously commenced operations.

Various games occupied the greater part of the afternoon; and as one of the visitors did not forget his violin, the amusements were wound up with a country dance on the green sward, which, together with other sports, forcibly reminds us of "an English merry making in the olden time." The pecuniary results of the whole affair were very satisfactory, the amount realized being nearly £20.

Willow Glen Gardeners

<http://www.whispersfromwillowglen.blogspot.com>

On Tuesday the 7th of February, The Willow Glen Gardeners headed across the border into Canberra for a field trip to The Australian National Botanic Gardens. The overcast day brought a welcome reprieve from the recent heatwave and made for perfect conditions to stroll around some of the 35 hectare gardens. Everyone gathered in the visitor's centre to collect maps while they patiently waited for the late comers to finally arrive (sorry guys, traffic was terrible!) Of course the first and most important thing on the agenda was finding a place to have morning tea, the onsite café "Floresco in The Gardens" did not disappoint offering a variety of yummy meals, cakes and very good coffee. They even had tables large enough to fit the entire gang!

The Botanic Garden Showcases a wide variety of native plants (over 6000 species) from all over Australia and offers guided tours as well as a variety of self-guided walking trails. There are themed garden zones such as the "Red Centre Garden" "Rainforest" and "Sydney Region Flora". The gardens are open 7 days and entry is free but there is a cost of $3.20 per hour for parking.

We had our usual meeting over lattes and slices discussing our gardens. Weeds are of course a 'forever' issue, we discovered the group has an abundance of apples and Warren shared a great tip about putting paper bags over bunches of grapes to help them ripen more evenly, just be sure to cut the bottom corner to allow for drainage.

We headed off for our walk and couldn't help but admire the large and beautifully made sculpture of a 'Thorny Devil' lizard residing in the 'Red Centre Garden'; he made for a great photo opportunity sitting there surrounded by red sand and desert plant life with Black Mountain and the tower a stunning contrasting backdrop.

An abundance of real wildlife also makes the gardens their home. We took turns spotting and photographing the well camouflaged water dragons that congregated around the rock garden waterfall. Eastern Spine Bills drank nectar from tiny flowering orchids, Fairy Wrens darted amongst the banksias and even a random ginger coloured rabbit was spotted hopping about the Eucalypt lawn.

We stopped for a quick chat to a member of their hard working staff who was in the process of mowing the vast eucalypt lawn - with a push style Lawn mower. She assured us that they did in fact usually use a ride on but it was out for repairs and she was just glad that it wasn't 40C that day!

Slowly we made our way back out to the car park through the beautiful winding stone paths and boardwalks of the Rainforest Gully, the towering tree ferns above us creating a cool, leafy contrast to some of the dry harsh landscapes you find in other parts of the garden.

We said our goodbyes and I drove away that day feeling very peaceful, Australia really is a beautiful country with such amazing and diverse native flora; we are lucky to live here!

Our next meeting will be held on Tuesday 7th March 2017 at 'Kentgrove' in Goulburn, more information will be sent to members closer to the date. Interested in joining us?
