Windellama Markets

Our first Spring market was combined with a very popular and successful car boot sale with loads of people coming to sell, trade and offload their unwanted household and shed items. It was a bit windy (as it usually is in Windellama in September) but this didn't put the stallholders or the customers off from coming to check out the bargains.

The Windellama Rural Fire Service was on hand to collect donations at the gate, but got called out to an emergency halfway through the morning! Apparently there was a car accident and our RFS girls and guys are on their toes to help out as usual. They came back to the hall later to get a feed at the great country kitchen.

As per usual we also had a great selection of stalls inside the hall in the markets, ranging from plants, preserves, paintings and photography, crochet and embroidery, tools and fruit and vegetables.

If you haven't been before and/or are new to the community, don't be shy. Give me a call or email if you would like to have a stall at our next market on Sunday 15th October. Or just come along and have a chat. We're friendly!

August 2023 Rainfall at our place

We received a further 8mm of rain for this month giving us a total of 30.5mm for August. So far this year we have collected 376.5mm of moisture. At this stage of last year we had received 726mm.

September 2023 Rainfall at our place

Rain has been in short supply at our place with a nice drop of 14.5mm on the 7th of this month followed by a spit of 0.5mm on the 8th.

Garden Moisture

This month I have been concentrating on trying to make our gardens low water usage.

There are many ways to enhance the moisture levels for your garden growing system. The latest trend seems to be wicker gardens and I must admit I have been mucking around with a 20 litre bucket wicker system for growing tomatoes. Using 20 litre buckets the growth of tomatoes has been very good but fruiting not so good. At this stage I'm thinking it's the type of tomatoes planted and the fertiliser routine. Time will tell.

In our garden system I have several no dig garden beds. Each bed will eventually have its own irrigation system consisting of a Brown Pipe dripper hose for giving young plants moisture and when these young plants are mulched, I have three to four 80 – 100 ml pipe off cuts inserted into the middle of the garden bed that passes through the mulch and into the soil under the mulch. Each pipe is inserted into the soil at roughly the same distance apart. Each of these pipes has its own dripper system for watering. The plants are then watered via the larger pipe onto the soil under the mulch. Also, fertilisers are applied directly into these pipes. An easy way to fertilise is via using the pipes and to place a handful of chicken manure pellets into each pipe, so that each time you water they are getting a feed.

Fruit trees and vines are also watered similarly, with each tree and vine having a piece of 30 to 50ml pipe inserted into the ground beside it and a dripper hanging into the pipe. When trees are mulched the water is applied under the mulch via the dripper inserted into the pipe.

In our garden

Currently, the Camellias in different shades of Red, Pink and White have produced a spectacular display. The Hellebores, also have bloomed profusely. The majority of this collection of blooms are on the Southern side of our hose.

Jobs for the month at our place

To continue making gardens water wise, as described above.

Adding more Fruit Fly and Codling Moth Traps. I don't think you can ever have enough.

Starting Salad plants, Zucchini, Pumpkins etc., in jiffy pots for transplanting out when frosts have finished.

To complete turning the Rose Garden into a weed free garden.

Replacing tap washers in leaking taps and checking all pipe joint for leaks and if any, fixing (stopping) the leak.

Bird Life

The male Blue Wren is obtaining his breeding colour and at the same time getting aggressive with his reflection in one of our silver pots. His beak must be pretty hard now or sore from pecking at his reflection.

The black and white noisy egg robbers have turned up and with us having only a few golden oldie layers left, I need to deter these robbers of eggs or stop them getting to the nest site.

Windellama SES First Aid & CFR

The State Emergency Service lost a valued member who died at Goulburn Base Hospital on the 06th September after a long illness. He was only 60 years of age.

Gary Poil held title of Commander at the Collector SES.

He was a much valued member of the community as was shown by the very large gathering at his Funeral.

Windellama people will remember the very tasty Poil's honey which was sold at the Windellama Markets. His son is carrying on with the Apiary.

We had a much happier occasion last month at the Windellama SES when it was our pleasure to give Bob Bell, Regional Cluster Commander for the Goulburn Region a much deserved farewell as he now is going to give retirement a try.

I would like to suggest that you all try to clean your rooves, valleys and gutters on your houses. Also, if you have Solar Panels on your house you will note that the leaves are now being attached to the mounting brackets.

The RFS and the SES benefit from this, fires for RFS water for the SES.

Kind Regards

Kevin Muffet

Thank you to every individual who gave a helping hand in any way towards the Cake Auction organized by the Windellama Progress Association in aid of Can Assist Goulburn and District.

What an outcome! Be assured the money raised will be put to good use by financially helping local families affected by cancer.

As well as all their hard work preparing for and delivering on the day, the Progress paid for any expenses outlaid. That, of course meant that all money raised on the day came straight to Can Assist.

Thankyou all again

NSW RURAL FIRE SERVICE

Windellama Rural Fire Brigade

Bush Fire Danger Period commenced 1 October 2023

The Bush Fire Danger Period for Windellama commenced 1 Oct 2023 and runs to at least 31 March 2024. You will need a Fire Permit to light a fire, other than a cooking fire, in the open during this time.

A permit is not automatic and in many cases, one will not be issued. Factors include your preparation, the topography for the burn, availability of fire suppression equipment, the expected weather and the potential to wait until the Bush Fire Danger Period is over.

To apply for a permit contact our local NSW RFS Fire Control Centre on 6226 3100.

Get Ready now

The grasslands of Windellama are carrying heavy fuel loads and it only takes a warm day and some wind to really dry out the grasses and significantly increase the fire risk. It takes 5 minutes to improve or make a plan that will give your property, your family and yourself the best chance of survival should you be threatened by a bush fire. Take the first step in preparing for bush fire, visit myfireplan.com.au and additional material is on the NSW RFS website. rfs.nsw.gov.au For those not online you can call the Bush Fire Information Line - 1800 NSW RFS (1800 679 737) for advice on protecting your property.

Windellama Markets – Thank you for the donations

Thank you for the donations at the Windellama Markets Ute and Boot Sale for us to purchase some extra equipment for the upcoming fire season. Unfortunately, we had to leave early to attend a car vs motorcycle MVA and did not get to meet everyone who attended the markets.

Brigade activity

- 2 units attended a large grass fire at Post Office Rd Corang. At the same time 1 unit was attending a bushfire Kooringaroo Gundry with Bungonia Brigade
- 4 units attended a bushfire at Kooringaroo rd Gundry with Bungonia, Gundry, Goullburn and Towrang Brigades

Spring has sprung, all the flowering shrubs, and fruit trees are in blossoming. I hope you all have done your pruning. We haven't finished ours.

VEGETABLES SEEDS

Now is the time to sow seeds of carrots, parsnips, beetroot, peas, cabbage, silver beet, radish, Also vegetables known as cucurbits, they are:-

Cucumber, zucchini, melons, pumpkins, squashes, capsicums.

Also sow sweet corn, parsley, and tomatoes. If planting tomatoes make sure you cover them with cloth or glass to keep the frost off them.

In our area we can get a late frost, so if your seeds are up, and a frost is about cover with shade cloth or frost cloth even and old sheet.

Beans, and celery can also go in.

FLOWERS

Ageratum, Alyssum (or Sweet Alice), asters, balsam, cosmos.

Dahlia; during this month seedling form, mainly dwarf varieties, which grows to 60cm in height, and range in colours from pinks, red, yellow, white and various bi-colours .

The taller dahlias such as Decorative, Cactus Charm and Water Lily can be purchased as tubers, plenty of mixed colours, their grow to a height 1.5-2metres in height and require a firm stake.

Dianthus, gypsophila, larkspur, linaria, lobelia, livingstone daisy, marigolds, nasturtium( help to keep the white cabbage fly off the cabbages, which lay the eggs on them instead of the cabbages.)

Pansy, petunias, phlox, Schizanthus, portulaca, snapdragon, and verbena.

Bulbs; When spring flowering bulbs such as hyacinths, daffodils, jonquils, ranunculus and anemone finish flowering, this is the month to feed them with complete fertilizer, this assists the bulbs for next year's flowers.

Spread blood and bone and a small amount of sulfate of potash when preparing vegie beds, and dig in well before planting.

Rejuvenate old lemon trees by cutting back hard, then fertilizing and spreading mulch over the root area. If a new plant don't fertilizer the tree when flowering, they drop the flower, so no fruit.

Thank You Notes

Hello folks! First off, The Tarago District Men's Shed would like to thank Tim and Alanna from The Loaded Dog for their support over the month of August with the Friday night raffles and the Father's Day raffle. Thanks also to the community that supports the Men's Shed.

Thank you to Veolia for the grant that will help us replace the third hand flooring that is currently in the recreational area of the shed. You can see in the photos that the floor needs replacing. It will look great when it's done.

Men's Shed Projects

The show goes on every week at the Shed. We have many different charters appearing in this production. We are only here to please all who attend. Come on down and join in on the fun.

The Men's Shed is always open to any community project that we can help with. We have expertise in many fields so if you need help and advice on a community project, please give us a call. Our advice may not always be correct, but it's always free and often funny!

Our day trips to places of interest are a great success. Last month a group of shedders went over to Nowra to drop in on the Fleet Air Army Museum. The free entry was appealing! Thank you to the volunteers who showed us around and told us some great stories about the displays. Thanks to those people who have assisted with organising these events. Suggestions for more places to visit are most welcome.

The Shed continues to be a hive of activity with benches always full of projects, we have Noel making toys, and a big mess. Other people restoring outdoor furniture where they will enjoy the cool windy days of Tarago. Laurie, (AKA Noah) is in the process of making an ark, be it very small, but looks like an ark.

We have had some interesting machinery donated to the Shed and our thanks goes to those people who supplied them.

Please be safe and look out for each other, if in doubt, call out for support.

Pigs, pigs, pigs! Lots of people are seeing pigs around the area and the extensive damage they cause. Fortunately the NSW Department of Primary Industries guys are on the job and are planning a pig control program in the Sandy Point Road area. If you detect feral pigs on your property you can report the sighting to the Local Land Services Biosecurity Officer or via FeralScan.

Fortunately we saw no evidence of feral pig activity on John and Carolyn property, where we met for our September meeting, even though it is right in the Sandy Point Road area. Perhaps Little Peter the bull has taken on boundary riding duties as another string to his bow, since his efforts at calf production have been rather marginal.

John and Carolyn's garden was looking fabulous as usual, with freshly pruned roses and erigeron reminding us that we need to get cracking with our own pruning. The day was sunny but a bit chilly, as a rather lazy wind was blowing, which made us reach for our jackets before long. Of course, a few weeks later, we were all a bit warm as some hot westerly winds lifted the temperatures to record levels for this time of the year.

Even though it had been fairly cold up until our meeting in early September, everyone's hellebores were in full flower and making a fantastic show, together with camellias, daffodils and other assorted flowering bulbs. A great start to Spring.

Lots of vegetable planting is going on in anticipation of a productive spring and summer, however we are all wondering just how hot and dry the coming summer might be, after so many years of good seasonal rain. Fiona has been researching pulse watering as a water saving strategy. Pulse watering advocates applying smaller amounts of water fairly frequently for flowering plants, rather than deep watering at longer intervals. She is reporting quite good results for her flower production using this technique.

Sue is having variable success with her recent pea plantings. It seems that one of her beds is a particular favourite of the local slugs, but not the others. She thinks it might be something to do with the particular varieties of peas that she has planted; the slugs like one variety more than the others. Clearly there are some connoisseurs amongst her slug population. We suggested that she could try luring her slugs away from the other beds by continuing to plant a sacrificial bed of their favourite pea, but I don't think she was too keen on that idea. Perhaps a more conventional approach might give better results. Some recommended approaches include beer traps, coffee grounds sprinkled around the plants and crushed egg shells to create a gritty barrier around the affected plants.

We will be visiting Sue's place for our October meeting, so we will be able to see how she is progressing. It's always a pleasure to visit Sue's property as there is always a great show in her garden and lots of produce to admire.

If any of our readers would like to join us, please contact Warren or Judy for details of our next meeting (jawyeats@gmail.com). New members are always welcome.

The CWA's Tarago Branch held their September meeting early on the 13th so we could have our Open Day, Morning Tea at 11am with some of our visitors from as far as Goulburn and Bungendore attending. It was a lovely catch up for all of us. Thank You to the ladies that brought along "morning tea" - it was lovely and once again lots of it. The food was laid out on tables in the middle of the rooms and displays of our Awareness Week subject Neurodiversity, as well as Handicraft, Primary Products, Recycled items, Flora & Fauna items were placed around the edge of the room with seats. A full house ! Photos included.

The Market In Tarago was held a couple of days later, where Tarago CWA had a stall with a smaller display, but with big interest.

Membership

Is due now, $47 and $10 for the Group Levy. If paid to State Office, make sure you email Jenny H. and let her know you have made the payment.

September saw us head to the Tulip Top Farm on the Federal Highway for a wander around their beautiful gardens. Then we were off to lunch at Bungendore's Woodworks Cafe with a stop into Phil's Emporium Op Shop afterwards. October, we will be going to Murrumbateman's Black Wattle Alpaca Farm for morning tea, a tour and then lunch. I'm sure we will find something to look at on the way home.

We had fun at the terrarium workshop in August making miniature landscapes. There was a large selection of glass containers and succulent plants so participants had a good choice from which to choose. Clare showed us how to put gravel in the bottom for drainage and then to cut flyscreen to size so it could be added as a topping to prevent the potting mix from moving into the bottom. Rocks and easy-care succulents were arranged in the mix and then finished off with moss and sometimes decorative ornaments.

Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves and the resulting pot arrangements were lovely.

Pam chose a variation on the theme and made an indoor water garden in an old aquarium – but no fish. It was colourful and sure to look lovely when filled with water. That had to be done at home, of course, as it would be much too difficult and awkward to carry home full.

Afterwards we enjoyed an upmarket sausage sizzle and cake sitting in the sunshine under the maple tree. It's a lovely way to spend an afternoon. We were lucky enough to have similar weather at our AGM and so could enjoy another sausage sizzle!

As the committee members had been fundraising at the Bungendore IGA sausage sizzle the day before we were admittedly becoming a little tired of the smell of sausages, delicious as they were. And THEN we went to Goulburn Bunnings on the next Thursday night to help visitors make cutting boards as a pre-

Father's Day activity. Guess what food the Goulburn Men's Shed were cooking?

TAWS had a table at the recent Tarago markets. Mainly we handed out information about the Shed (remember new members are always welcome) but we also had a few items including excess tools and material for sale. We will be doing the same thing outside the Shed at the upcoming Ute and Boot sale at the Tarago Showground. There will be a wide variety of items to choose from as we rationalise our stock. Come along and pick up a bargain.
